Postcards from the Edge: Reference & Instruction for Film Studies
ARLIS/NA 2006

List of Resources

Presented By:
Nedda H. Ahmed
Fine Arts Librarian
Denison University
Granville, OH
ahmedn@denison.edu / 740-587-6688
A) Reference Materials

General Reference

1. Magill's
   Magill's has published several series during the 20th century. Entries on films include production information (including actors), film synopsis, & brief listing of published reviews:
   a. English Language Films, Series I / 4 vols., published 1980
   b. English Language Films, Series II / 6 vols., published 1981
   c. Silent Films / 3 vols., published 1982
   d. Foreign Language Series / 8 vols., published 1985
   e. Cinema Annual / 1 vol. published annually since 1982

2. The American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States / DEN Ref PN1998 .A57
   A multi-volume set; good for basic info on films produced from 1893 through 1971; also has some citations for periodical articles.
   Also avail. as CD-ROM from Chadwyck-Healey.

3. *Film Indexes Online: (avail. online from Chadwyck-Healey)
   American Film Institute Catalog online, combined with the British Film Institute’s catalog

   You can also purchase the BFI catalog separately, as a product called Film Index International; the first release of Film Index International contains the BFI’s most up to date film and person index, with records from 1900-2003.
   “Offering both film and person searches, as well as a new quick search function, Film Index International has useful functionality, such as a search history, the ability to save and e-mail selected records, a combine saved searches function, usage statistics and a number of other new features.”

   Technical terms

   A good general-use film dictionary.

6. *The Complete Index to World Film since 1895:
   ▪ http://www.citwf.com
   ▪ Get a FREE 5-day trial for Web version
   ▪ Database of over 379,000 films from 175 countries; Compiled by Alan Goble.
   ▪ TIP: if you enter 195 in Year, for example, you get all the films between 1950 and 1959.
   ▪ Also avail as CD-ROM. Loads onto your server for multiple concurrent users. Three collections: World Film, Silent Film, & British Film.

7. Internet Movie Database (imdb.com)
   ▪ http://www.imdb.com
   ▪ Good for fact-checking, production notes, dates, filmographies, etc.

Directors & Film People:

    Vol. 1: Films (listed alphabetically by title);
Thematic/Genre Reference:
12. Encyclopedia of Early Cinema
13. Encyclopedia of Documentary Film
   People, films, concepts; entries contain bibliographies
15. Encyclopedia of Westerns
   Entries on films, people, sub-genres.
   Browse by type of monster/villain; each entry has an extensive filmography

Cultural Groups & Women in Film:
18. Australian Film
19. BFI Companion to German Film
20. The Greek Filmography
21. Encyclopaedia of Hindi Cinema
22. Encyclopaedia of Indian Cinema
   Organized by group; each group has entries on films & people
24. Blacks in American Films & Television
25. Women Filmmakers & Their Films
   Entries have filmographies & bibliographies

Film Theory:

B) Books, etc...
1. Screenplays: P
   • Newmarket Press--Newmarket Press Shooting Script Series
   • Hyperion / Talk Miramax Books (sometimes just Miramax)
   • FilmFour
   • Screenpress
   • St. Martin’s Griffin
   • Grove Press
   • Faber & Faber
   • Applause
   • Methuen Film
   • Warner Books
   • Black Sparrow Press
   • Lorimer/dist. by F. Ungar--Classic Film Scripts Series
Motion Picture Scripts collects the script holdings of six major film collections into one volume. Motion Picture Scripts is your one-stop source for finding and reading screenplays in Southern California.

- 17,000 entries alphabetized by release title
- Cross-referencing for easier access
- Contact information and addresses for all libraries
- Separate writer credit index

American Film Scripts Online

- Alexander Street Press
- Copyrighted (some unpublished) scripts (not public domain)
- Search by character, scene, race, nationality, age, subject, year of writing
- Will contain 1000 scripts (~500 currently)
- Can purchase perpetual rights or annual subscription

2. Studies & Analysis:
   - McFarland: http://www.mcfarlandpub.com/
   - Routledge
   - Berg
   - University Presses:
     - University of California
     - History of the American Cinema Series
     - University of Minnesota
     - University of Wisconsin
     - University of Indiana
     - Harvard University
     - Columbia University
     - University of Mississippi:
       - Conversations w/ Filmmakers Series
     - Oxford
     - Cambridge
   - British Film Institute: http://www.bfi.org.uk/booksvideo/books

SERIES OF NOTE FROM BFI:

- BFI Film Classics Series
- BFI Modern Classics Series
- Film-makers Series
- BFI World Directors Series
- Faber & Faber:
  - Directors on Directing Series

3. Technical or “How To” Books
   - Screenwriting
   - Filmmaking processes
   - Directing
   - Acting
C) Journals/Periodicals (examples)

1. Film studies/film history journals
   - Film Comment
   - Screen
   - Cahiers du Cinema
   - Cinema Journal
   - Cineaste
   - Film Quarterly
   - Journal of Film & Video

2. Journals about movie-making
   - Sight & Sound
   - American Cinematographer
   - Filmmaker
   - Creative Screenwriting

3. Trade publications
   - Variety

4. Newspapers
   - New York Times
   - London Times

5. Popular magazines
   - Entertainment Weekly
   - Rolling Stone
   - New Yorker

D) Indexes/Databases

   Use the Subject Index (in vol. 2) to find books on films. Books are listed in vol. 1.

2. Index to Critical Film Reviews / DEN Ref PN1995 .B64
   A guide to articles in scholarly journals... OLD, but has citations for foreign & obscure films. Films are listed alphabetically by title.

3. Film Review Index / DEN Ref PN1995 .F513 1986

4. *Film Literature Index:
   Online:  http://webapp1.dlib.indiana.edu/fli/simpleSearch.jsp
   Thanks to a falling out between the parties who created it, FLI Online is currently open-access!
   (Film and Television Documentation Center @ SUNY Albany + Indiana U.) Indexes 150 film and television periodicals from 30 countries.

5. *Film & Television Literature Index
From EBSCO
Will be a new online version of Film Lit Index THROUGH PRESENT
Due for release by end of May
Allegedly, current FLI subscribers will get free access

6. FIAF International FilmArchive Database
   Served by SilverPlatter (Ovid)
   Coverage: 300 periodicals since 1972, also print sources consists of four databases:
   - International Index to Film/TV Periodicals
   - Treasures from the Film Archives
   - International Directory of Film/TV Documentation Collections
   - Bibliography of FIAF Members Publications

7. Art Abstracts:
   Abstracts and citations for 414 art periodicals. Date coverage: 1929-present.

8. International Index to the Performing Arts:
   1864-present; from Chadwyck-Healey; avail. with or without full text

9. MLA International Bibliography

E) Miscellany

1. Research Microfiche Collections from UMI ProQuest:
   - British Film Institute Cinema Pressbooks, 1920 – 1940 (fiche)
     “From the era of the silent movies to the Golden Age of Hollywood in the 1930s and 40s, the pressbook was one of the key means by which studios persuaded cinema proprietors to show their films.”
   - Film Weekly, 1928-1939 (fiche)
   - History of the Cinema, 1895 – 1940 (fiche)
     “Created in response to the dramatic increase of interest in the history of cinema in the academic world, the collection provides essential materials for the study of one of the most important cultural influences of the twentieth century.”
   - The Alan G. Barbour Screen Facts and Screen Nostalgia Illustrated Collection (fiche)
     “Movie Nostalgia from the ‘20s, ‘30s, ‘40s, and ‘50s”
   - Picturegoer, 1913-1960 (fiche)

2. www.simplyscripts.com
   A free web site that provides searchable access to screenplays on the web
   POST non-copyrighted screenplays; LINK TO copyrighted material also has tons of useful links